

CRABTREE GOES QUIETLY TO REST

Meets Defeat in "American" Primaries Without Causing the Least Disturbance.

PERSUADERS ASCENDANT.

They Demonstrate Their Ability to Punish the Man Who Declared That Halloran Wouldn't Do.

Without even warming up the first precinct primaries to the point of a contest, Counterman Crabtree took the count last night, and today is down and out of the political ring. He fought the hierarchy to the last, only it was the hierarchy of persuaders in the "American" party instead of the ordinary kind of hierarchy the "American" sees in his dreams by night and demands for his diet by day.

Crabtree has not loved in the final hours of his efforts to retain favor, for it is because Crabtree and Black and Moran tried to build up a hierarchy of their own, and the persuaders didn't like the looks of it, or the jingle it made, or something like that, especially when Crabtree fought their plan to break it up, and make Moran less of a whole, all over again, all by themselves.

The real meaning of Crabtree's famous sentence, "Halloran won't do" is that Halloran had no use for the Crabtree-Moran combine.

At present the First precinct favorites seem to be Hebdon and Payne for the count, while John Duhel of baseball fame, is rated a heavy hitter from the Second. The Second is second to none, and was A. R. Carter is at work, however, and so are Louis J. Wood and Geo. Haybould, so that it is doubtful who will land the plums.

The result of the primaries last night is as follows:
